PREFACE.

---

Is a Speller a Necessary School-Book?—The old-fashioned Spelling-Book has been discarded by teachers generally. Many valid objections were properly urged against its use, and it passed away.

Entire dependence upon oral spelling may also be fitly styled a method of bygone days. Unfortunately for the old spelling-book it was associated with all the folly and weakness of “oral spelling,” and this partly accounts for its rejection.

What have the reformers given as a substitute for a Speller? They took our bread and have given in return but a stone. The bread even though a little stale was much more wholesome than the stone. In Canada parts of the lessons to be found in the Readers are taken as dictation lessons, and the pupils are turned loose on society to shock it by their bad spelling, and disgrace the schools which they attended, and in which they should have been taught. The Readers do not contain all the words that boys and girls will have to spell in life, and if they did, the lessons are not arranged in proper form for spelling lessons. Only a comparatively small portion of the Readers can be written from dictation in schools. Bad as were the old Spellers, they were infinitely better than nothing. This fact is now recognized in Great Britain and the United States, in both of which countries many valuable spelling-books have recently been issued. That these were necessary in England is clearly shown by the fact that at a recent Civil Service Examination "no less than 1,861 out of 1,972 failures were caused by spelling."

A practical dictation Speller is clearly a necessity, and this work has been prepared to supply an obvious want in the programme of Canadian schools. The claim to the name "Practical" is based on the fact that it is not a mere collection of thousands of "long-tailed words in osity and ation," but contains a graded series of lessons to teach the pupils the proper spelling of the words which all have to use.

Prominent Features. The book is divided into nine parts, as follows :—

PART I. contains the words in common use in daily life, together with abbreviations, forms, etc. These are the words that should first be learned. If a boy has to leave school early, he should at least know how to spell the words of every-day occurrence in connection with his business.

PART II. gives words liable to be spelled incorrectly because the same sounds are spelled in various ways in them.

PART III. contains words pronounced alike, but spelled differently with different meanings.

PART IV. embraces a careful treatment of Letter Writing, the use of Capital Letters, and Simple Rules for Spelling. The exercises supplied in this part will be found of practical value in the school-room.

PART V. contains a large collection of the most difficult words in common use, and is intended to supply material for a general review, or for spelling matches and tests.

PART VI. contains the words most commonly spelled incorrectly in Canadian schools. It was prepared from lists sent by many teachers. Pupils who can spell the words in Part VI. will make few mistakes in spelling.

PART VII. contains spaces in which each pupil should write the words he is liable to misspell. This is a most important feature.

PART VIII. contains selections for dictation lessons. They should be memorized by the pupils. They may thus aid in the training of language and character.

PART IX. is devoted to etymology.

HINTS ON TEACHING SPELLING.

When should Pupils begin to Learn to Spell? —

There should be no oral spelling, or written spelling either, from memory, during the first year and a half or two years of school life; yet pupils should be learning to spell from the start. How? By copying, COPYING, COPYING. By copying in script well-written sentences set by the teacher on the board. Sometimes these sentences may be taken from the primer, but they should generally be the language of the pupils themselves, including certain words given by the teacher.

Assigning Spelling Lessons. — The teacher should not merely say, "Prepare the tenth lesson," or, "Your dictation will be the first twelve lines on page 24." The pupils should pronounce after the teacher the words of the lesson, looking at them carefully as they do so. Peculiar or difficult words should be written on the blackboard, and spelled simultaneously by the pupils, and hints should be given to aid in the preparation of the lesson.

Preparing Spelling Lessons. — We wish to teach the forms of the words, not their sounds. Unfortunately, the forms of words do not always agree with the sounds in English; hence the form of a word must be impressed on the mind through the eye, and not the ear. It is perfectly clear therefore that the art of making good spellers consists in teaching pupils to see words accurately. The London Times once said, "Spelling is learnt by reading, and nothing but reading can teach spelling." It may be accepted as a rule that a good reader is always a good speller. These facts all point the thoughtful teacher to the conclusion that we have already stated; — spelling depends on the power of seeing with precision. It follows that the exercise which compels the pupil to look most carefully at words must be the best method of preparing a spelling lesson. Unquestionably this exercise is transcription. Let the pupils copy on their slates the lesson to be prepared. The lesson may be copied as a home exercise, if due care be taken by the teacher in examining both spelling and writing. This is necessary in order to compel scrutinizing attention to the words to be copied. The whole value of the exercise depends on this being done.

Repeating the letters of a word orally is of little lasting benefit. Make the pupils see the words, and if possible never let a pupil see a word wrongly spelled.

Testing Spelling Classes. — There are only two methods, oral and written. The oral method alone is of very little practical value. An American writer records the case of a young man "who won three prizes at spelling schools, but made five mistakes in spelling in a note written to a School Board." Oral spelling does not accustom the eye to the form of the word in writing. This is a fatal objection to it, and all modern teachers recommend that spelling lessons be conducted chiefly in writing.

Correcting Spelling Lessons. — They must be corrected thoroughly. If proper preparation has been made as recommended very few errors will be made. In a large class the teacher will not be able to examine personally the book or slate of each pupil, except in the case of review lessons consisting of words previously misspelled in the class. These should always be examined by the teacher. In other lessons one of the following plans may be adopted:—

1. Pupils exchange slates, and the teacher gives the correct spelling word by word, the pupils marking those that are wrong.

2. Pupils retain their own slates, and different pupils are called on to spell the words. Those agreeing with the spelling given indicate by raising the hand, before the teacher decides as to its correctness. Marking as before.

3. Slates are exchanged and the corrections made as in No. 2.

4. While the teacher writes the correct spelling on the board, each pupil may correct his own work, and slates or books be exchanged for revision only. The latter method is probably the best with honest pupils.

In all cases where slates are exchanged the pupil owning the slate should have the right to appeal against the marking done by his neighbor.

Reviews. — Each pupil should write correctly the words which he misses, about five times, to impress the correct forms on his mind. In addition to this he ought to make a list at the end of his book of all the errors he makes. From this list the teacher should prepare his reviews. The words missed are the only words that need to be taught. "Leave no enemies in the rear." Review regularly.

General Suggestions. — 1. The teacher should always articulate clearly and pronounce correctly when giving words for spelling.

2. Never overstrain the enunciation of a word in order to indicate its spelling.

3. Allow only one trial in spelling orally or in writing.

4. In spelling orally, the divisions into syllables should be marked by slight pauses, but in no other way.

5. Do not assign lessons too difficult for the pupils who have to prepare them. This compels the pupils to spell badly.

6. It is desirable that spelling should be taught to a considerable extent by means of composition, in order to give the pupils practice in spelling the words in their own vocabularies.

7. In some of the dictation lessons in this book time may be saved by having only the words in italics spelled. The teacher should read the whole sentence and emphasize the words to be spelled.

PREFACE TO NEW EDITION.

With a view to perfecting the Practical Speller, and making it in every respect worthy of the name "practical," two new chapters have been added, Parts V. and VI.

Part V. was compiled from lists of the words commonly misspelled in schools in all parts of the Dominion, and it will therefore be a most important addition to the book. It is a fact worthy of note that the pupils throughout Canada fail in the spelling of nearly the same words.

Part VI. is intended to be the special spelling book of the individual child who owns the book. It will form the best basis for reviewing, not only during school life, but in after years.

PREFACE TO NEW AND ENLARGED EDITION OF 1901.

In this edition a new chapter has been added which is numbered Part IV. In it will be found a careful treatment of Letter-Writing, the Use of Capital Letters, and Simple Rules for Spelling. The copious exercises supplied in this part will be found of practical value in the school-room and well adapted to the capacity of the pupils in public school classes.

FAMILIAR WORDS.

THE lists in Part I. contain the words in common use in every-day life. They are the words which every person who writes at all must use, and which every child should therefore learn to spell.

They may be used for oral spelling or dictation lessons for the slate or exercise book. The latter method is much to be preferred.

The difficult words are repeated so as to give a review lesson about once a week.

Dictation lessons in sentence form are given at intervals. They may serve as models for teachers, who may, if they wish, include the words of each lesson in sentences. It will be a good plan for advanced pupils to write sentences of their own, including the words dictated by the teacher.

The words are arranged in three columns, and the simplest are placed in the first column and the most difficult in the last. Each lesson may thus be assigned to three different classes. Pupils in the Second Book, for instance, might have to spell only the words of the first column, those in the Third Book the words in the first and second columns, and those in the Fourth Book the whole lesson. The Third and Fourth Book classes would in this way be reviewing the work of previous sessions. Many of the lessons are so simple that each lesson may be assigned as a whole to even Second Book scholars.

Dress has a moral effect upon the conduct of mankind. Let any gentleman find himself with dirty boots, old sur-tout, soiled neckcloth, and a general negligence of dress, he will, in all probability, find a corresponding disposition by negligence of address. — Sir John Barrington.

We sacrifice to Dress, till household joys

A lazy girl, who liked to live in comfort and do nothing, asked her fairy godmother to give her a good genius to do everything for her. On the instant the fairy called ten dwarfs, who dressed and washed the little girl, and combed her hair and fed her, and so on. All was done so nicely that she was happy except for the thought that they would go away. "To prevent that," said the godmother, "I will place them permanently in your ten pretty little fingers." And they are there yet.

Man's life involves birth, breath, warmth, care, growth, strength, youth, love, mercy, attention, direction, the finite, death, etc. With mind we connect brain, thought, sense, school, study, perception, reflection, application, memory, consideration, investigation, wisdom, etc. Schools are known as public, common, graded, high, union, select, model, normal, parish, commercial, preparatory, primary, reformatory, agricultural, scientific, medical, divinity, kindergarten, etc. Do you attend an academy, a seminary, a college, or a university? Connected with schools are the trustees, the instructor or teacher, the professor, principal, assistant, monitor, monitress, etc. Schools use text-books, apparatus, paper, colors, a lexicon or dictionary, a clock, chart, pencil, crayon, magnet, blackboard, library, gazetteer, cyclopædia, pens, etc. At intermission and after dismissal there are many games; as, base-ball, leap-frog, quoits, croquet, lacrosse, cricket, etc.

HUSBANDRY, or farming, is the cultivation, or tillage, of the ground. Horticulture is the art of cultivating gardens. Agriculture is the art of cultivating the soil, generally in fields of many acres. It includes chopping, yoking, driving, logging, stabling, clearing, fencing, ploughing, sowing, dragging, rolling, marking, planting, hoeing, spading, weeding, digging, picking, mowing, cradling, harvesting, housing, and threshing, — all the work of raising crops. Lands worked by tenants are too often sterile, barren, or worn out. A large farm may have arable or tillable upland, fertile, rocky, sandy, or loamy; pastures and meadows; hills, caves, dales, dells, glades, roads, paths, woods, forests, springs, ponds, streams, brooks, creeks, coves, lowlands, chasms, swales, swamps, bogs, pools, sloughs, etc. The husbandman, or farmer, needs a good farmhouse, barn, stable, shed, and other buildings; marl, lime, gypsum, guano, compost, barn-yard manure, muck, phosphate, bone-dust, and other fertilizers; and a plough, colter, harrow, cultivator, axe, hoe, spade, shovel, rake, roller, sickle, cradle, reaper, mower, pitchfork, etc. Productive farms yield corn, wheat, rye, oats, barley, buckwheat, peas, beans, millet, and other bread-stuffs; clover, red-top, timothy, blue-grass, and other grasses; potatoes, onions, beets, carrots, turnips, tomatoes, rhubarb, asparagus, parsnips, parsley, celery, lettuce, tobacco, flax, hemp, cotton, wool, fruits, flowers, berries, melons, meat, poultry, game, etc.

MEDICINE relates to the prevention or cure of diseases of the body. An ailment is a morbid state of the body, not an acute disease. The patient had an infectious and malignant disease. Did he prefer allopathy, hydropathy, homœopathy, or botanic practice? A complaint is a slight disorder. A malady is a chronic or painful disorder. Was the fever scarlet, yellow, typhus, gastric, bilious, or typhoid? The delirious invalid, a glutton and a cripple, suffered with the gout. Man suffers from diarrhœa, toothache, rheumatism, cholera, dyspepsia, diphtheria, pneumonia, chilblains, dysentery, insanity, epilepsy, erysipelas, neuralgia, constipation, hydrophobia, congestion, inflammation, bronchitis, carbuncles, consumption, paralysis, nausea, pleurisy, etc.

JUDAISM is the religious doctrines and rites of the Hebrews, or Jews; also, conformity to the Jewish rites and ceremonies. The ending ism means doctrine, sect, or party; as, Romanism, Protestantism, Mohammedanism, paganism, pantheism, fanaticism, polytheism, monotheism, materialism, formalism, mysticism, scepticism, etc. Denominations of Christians are known as Catholic, Episcopal, Lutheran, Calvinist, Methodist, Reformed, Moravian, Unitarian, Trinitarian, Presbyterian, Congregational, Quaker or Friend, Baptist, etc. We should not be low, mean, base, vile, proud, sinful, wicked, haughty, vicious, profane, sceptical, profligate, irreverent, impious,—a scoffer, scorner, mocker, bigot, or an unbeliever. We should be meek, humble, reverent, faithful, moral, virtuous, pious, pure, devout, righteous, and godly. Strive for humility, purity, piety, spirituality, sanctity, and holiness. Avoid hypocrisy, profanity, irreverence, idolatry, and ungodliness.

PART III.

Words pronounced alike, or nearly alike, but spelled differently, with different meanings.

---

NOTE. — It is thought best not to give lists of these words with their meanings, as pupils may get them in their dictionaries, if the connection in which the words are used does not enable the pupils to decide their meaning.

For review purposes, or to save time, teachers may read the sentences, emphasizing the words in italics, and the pupils may write these words only. The order in which they are written will enable the teacher to test their accuracy.

Lesson I.

A well-bred young man held the horse's bridle while the bridal party got a loaf of bread and a bowl of milk. The beech-tree near the ocean beach has a large bole. "Let us have peace," not war. He ate a piece of lemon peel. Did you hear that peal of thunder? When he gets over his pique we shall be friends again. The English peer climbed the peak of the mountain. The ship is at the pier. A lawyer who makes good pleas is sure to please his clients.

Lesson IX.

Will you have a plum? That pole does not stand plumb. Exercise opens every pore of the skin. Please to pour me a glass of water. Do not pore over your books so much. In the Bible we read of a bruised reed.

I pay no tax when I travel in Europe. The throes of travail are severe. The bad boy throws stones at the birds. He threw the ball through the window. I would like to have the yolk of an egg. Long may our flag wave o'er the ocean wave. I waive my right to exemption.

Review.

If you should e'er have to submit to the ordeal of a searching examination in English orthography, you should ere going up make yourself thoroughly acquainted with an air of confidence and an heir at law, your Aunt Hill and the anthill in the copse, a beefsteak and a gambler's stake, an elective or hereditary peer and a stone pier, tears of joy and tiers of seats, beer for the living and a bier for the dead, the base of a pyramid and the bass of an anthem or a hymn. Learn the difference between him who wields the adze and him who ever adds to his wealth; between the Bey of Tunis and the Bay of Naples, the bays of Europe and the green baize table-cover, the graceful boughs of the beech and the swelling bows of the boat on the beach, or the polite bows of the beau bending like a bow; between the feminine belle and a brass bell, a policeman's beat and a vegetable beet, the bight of a rope and the bite of a rattlesnake, the birth of a child and the berth of a sailor, the breech of a gun and the breach which the latter makes in a wall, a broach for a roast and a brooch for a lady, a rabbit burrow and a municipal borough, a brass cannon and an ecclesiastical canon, a cession of territory and a session of Parliament, the cord of a whip and the chord of a fiddle, the dough in a kneading-trough and the doe in the forest, a cattle-fair and a cab or omnibus fare, a school-fellow and the felloe of a wheel. All such words demand the learner's special attention, if he wishes to avoid the ludicrous blunders of those who write hairbrained for harebrained, bearfaced and bearfooted for barefaced and barefooted, pole-tax for poll-tax, plumline for plumbline, raindear for reindeer, duelap for dewlap, tailbearer for talebearer.

The Parts of a letter are

1. the heading,
2. the address,
3. the salutation,
4. the body,
5. the subscription.

Toronto, Ont.,

Miss Ellen Fletcher,

Denver, Colorado.

My dear Friend,—

Your letter of April
20th was duly received.

We are all sorry that you had to leave school. We spoke of you often yesterday, and wished that you were with us.

Our May-day picnic was held in a large grove just outside of the city. We gathered some beautiful wild flowers for our lesson this morning.

The teacher and all your friends in school join me in wishing you a pleasant vacation.

Hoping that you are already better, and will be able to write to me often, I am,

Very truly, your friend,

Helen Parsons.

2. The address is sometimes written at the end of the letter. Thus the preceding letter might have been concluded in this way :—

Hoping that you are already better, and will be able to write to me often,

I am,

Very truly, your friend,

Helen Parsons

3. In order to call special attention to the different parts of a neatly-written letter, the following letter is printed with the names of the separate parts indicated in small italic type.

Observe carefully :

(a) The various items that make up each part.

(b) The commas and the periods in the heading, in the address, in the salutation, and in the subscription.

Some prefer to punctuate the address with a colon, thus :—

Joseph B. Morrison,

Front St., Toronto, Ont. :—

4. If the body of the letter touches upon several different topics, each topic should be treated in a separate paragraph, as in the letter on pages 79 and 80.

My dear Sir,

(Body of the letter.)

Allow me to introduce to you my friend, Cyrus Montgomery, a distinguished teacher of this place, who proposes to visit the public schools of your city for the purpose of making himself acquainted with the system of instruction which is followed in Ontario. He is one whose life thus far has been devoted to the cause of education, and whose efforts have been a blessing to hundreds of young people. Any assistance, therefore, that you may be able to offer Mr. Montgomery in the prosecution of his investigations will be of service to the public as well as a personal favor to me.

(Subscription.)

Yours very truly,
Frank G. Carpenter.

6. Rule several sheets of paper showing the proper arrangement of the different parts of a letter. Do this exercise repeatedly until you can finish a page in two or three minutes.

7. Write the following letters from dictation:—

Kingston, Nov. 19, 1900.
Messrs. Gage & Co., Toronto.
Gentlemen,—

I learn from an advertisement in the "Globe" that you are in want of an assistant book-keeper. Having had considerable experience as book-keeper in a large house in Montreal. I beg leave to offer myself to you for the position.

I am able to show you papers from my late employers, vouching for my ability and for my integrity. Will you be so kind as to name a time when I may venture to ask a personal interview?

Very respectfully yours,

J. Gregg Henderson.

Venice, Italy,

August 13, 1901.

Dear Gertie:

When the little children in Venice wish to take a bath, they just go down to the front steps of the house and jump off and swim in the street. Yesterday I saw a nurse standing on the front steps, holding one end of a string, and the other was tied to a little fellow who was swimming up the street. When he went too far, the nurse pulled in the string and got her baby home again. Then I met another youngster, swimming in the street, whose mother had tied him to a post by the side of the door, so that when he tried to swim away to see another boy, who was tied to another post up the street, he couldn't, and they had to sing out to one another over the water.

There must be lots of pleasant things to do at Andover, and I think you must have had a beautiful summer there.

Pretty soon, now, you will go back to Boston. Do go into my house when you get there, and see if the doll and her baby are well and happy, but do not carry them off. Then make the music-box play a tune, and remember

Your affectionate uncle,

James.

8. (a) Write a letter of recommendation for a personal friend.
- (b) Write an application for a position as teacher in a neighboring town.
- (c) Write a note of thanks for some favor received.
- (d) Write, extending an invitation to a friend to dine with you.
- (e) Write a note acknowledging the receipt of a check for services.

- (f) Write a letter home to your friends from Bermuda Islands, where you have gone to spend the winter, State reasons for going—describe the climate of Bermuda—vegetation and fruits—amusements and pastimes—contrast with Canada—state when you will return.

9. Write two notes similar to the following:—

My dear Harry,—

Next Wednesday will be my birthday, and I propose to invite a few intimate friends to celebrate the event with me in the evening. Will you come? I am sure that we shall have a good time, so please say “yes.”

Yours sincerely,

417 Rose Ave., Toronto.

JOE.

Mrs. Henry B. Wallace requests the pleasure of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Stuart's company, Wednesday, June 16, from seven to ten o'clock.

245 Forest Ave., London.

10. Here are several envelopes with the address written upon them. Notice the items of the address, study the punctuation marks, and observe where the postage stamp should be placed. Notice the addresses that indicate the post-office box. In large cities letters are delivered at the house, and the name of the street and the number of the house are placed on the envelope.

11. Rule ten such envelopes in different shapes and sizes and address them carefully and plainly. The envelope should be a trifle larger than the letter to be enclosed. The latter should be neatly folded a little narrower than the envelope.

Take some newspapers or thin wrapping papers and cut pieces to the sizes of note and letter paper. Practise folding these until you can make a neat, well-folded letter that fits the envelope properly.

12. The following CAUTIONS will save a great deal of trouble and annoyance if they are carefully observed:—

(a) Write very plainly. Do not scribble. Be very, very particular to write all proper names and all figures with extreme care.

(b) Do not crowd the words, especially near the end of a line. If there is not quite room for a word in full-sized letters either begin on the next line or else divide the word and put a hyphen at the end of the line. A word

- must not be divided except at the end of a syllable ; for example, the word father must not be divided thus, fath-, but after the first syllable fa- ; so farm- is a wrong division of farmer. Always reply to a letter promptly and make a note of the fact.
- (c) The most simple way in private correspondence is to write across the face of the envelope thus, " Answered Dec. 20th, '00." Preserve all letters for a reasonable time. It is better to preserve every business letter in proper files.
- (d) A business letter should be as short as possible, and so clearly expressed that there can be no mistaking the exact meaning intended. Do not mix up other matters in a business letter ; stick rigidly to the point, and if necessary enclose another letter on the other subjects to be discussed.

DICTATION EXERCISE.

A long way down that limpid water, chill and bright as an iceberg, went my little self that day on man's choice errand—destruction. All the little fish seemed to know that I was one who had taken out God's certificate, and meant to have the value of it ; every one of them was aware that we desolate more than replenish the earth. For a cow might come and look into the water, and put her yellow lips down ; a kingfisher, like a blue arrow, might shoot through the dark alleys over the channel, or sit on a dipping withy-bough with his beak sunk into his breast feathers ; even an otter might float down the stream, likening himself to a log of wood, with his flat head flush to the water top, and his oily eyes peering quietly ; and yet no panic would seize other life, as it does when a sample of man comes.

THE USE OF CAPITAL LETTERS.

Begin with a capital letter :

1. The first word of every sentence.

- (a) Copy a page from a school Reader. Note carefully each capital letter as it occurs.
- (b) Write a passage from dictation and put in the capitals.
- (c) Copy down a short extract which you know by heart and insert all the capitals.

2. The first word of every line of poetry.

Memorize the following extracts and then copy them out from memory. Revise your writing by reference to the book.

- (a) Dare to be true ! Nothing can need a lie ,
A fault which needs it most grows two thereby
- (b) Who struggles with his baser part,
Who conquers and is free,
He may not wear a hero's crown
Or fill a hero's grave ;
But truth will place his name among
The bravest of the brave.

3. Every proper noun and every proper adjective.

- (a) Point out five proper names in the school Reader.
- (b) Make adjectives from these six nouns:—England, Canada, France, George, Victoria, Elizabeth.
- (c) Write the names of the days of the week and of the months of the year. Begin each with a capital ; but observe that the names of the four seasons do not take capitals, nor do the words north, south, east, west, etc., except when they refer to certain districts or to the people living there. The wind is from the north. The South opposed the North.

4. Common nouns personified.

Study these examples :—

- (a) Come, Evening, once again, season of peace ;
Return, sweet Evening, and continue long.
- (b) O Death, where is thy sting? O Grave, where is thy victory?
- (c) O sacred Truth ! thy triumph ceased awhile
And Hope, thy sister, ceased with thee to smile.

5. All names applied to God and to Jesus Christ, and the pronouns he and thou when they stand for His name.

- (a) Such expressions as the Eternal One, the Supreme Being, the Almighty are examples. Select examples from the school Reader to illustrate this rule.

- (b) Glory to Thee, my God, this night,
For all the blessings of the light ;
Keep me, O keep me, King of Kings,
Beneath Thine own almighty wings.

6. All titles of honor and respect.

Study these examples :—

- (a) His Majesty King Edward the Seventh.
(b) The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.
(c) His Excellency the Governor-General.

Write ten more examples of titles.

7. All names of societies, parties, denominations, national events, etc.

Study the following examples and add ten more to the list :—

Anglicans, Roman Catholics, Odd Fellows,
Magna Charta, Fenian Raid, Gulf Stream.

8. The first word of a direct quotation, that is, one that forms a complete sentence by itself.

- (a) Be careful how you apply the old proverb,
"Honesty is the best policy."
(b) The fox could not reach the grapes, so he said,
"It does not matter, I know the grapes are sour."

9. The letters I and O are always written in capitals, but the word oh begins with a small letter, unless it comes under Rule 1 or Rule 2.

- (a) Find illustrations of this rule in the preceding examples given under other rules.
- (b) There came a burst of thunder sound ; the boy, oh ! where was he ?
- (c) "Come back ! come back !" he cried in grief,
"Across this stormy water,
And I'll forgive your Highland chief,
My daughter ! oh, my daughter !"

10. The titles of books, the headings of chapters, etc., take capitals for the notional words and small letters for the connecting words, that is, the articles, prepositions, and conjunctions.

Study these examples :—

- (a) Song at the Feast of Brougham Castle, On the Extinction of the Venetian Republic, The Fate of Burns, The Girl at the Half-way House. These are the names of poems, essays, books.
- (b) Copy out from the school Reader ten titles of prose lessons and ten of poetical lessons.
- (c) Set down the title of a lecture, the name of a book, the subject of a chapter.

11. Wherever there is any doubt about the use of a capital letter it is safe to use a small letter.

Something is left to the judgment of the writer in regard to very important words, but excess of capitals is to be avoided.

DICTATION EXERCISES.

12. Study the capitals in each extract.

(a) Once upon a time a clever barber in Germany had a pet starling that had learned to talk. The barber had the habit of repeating certain phrases over and over again, and the clever bird would repeat them also. "No man could have done that better," the barber would say when he had shaved a customer, or "I am the best barber in Germany." When he spoke of any plans for the future he would add, "If the fates are willing." And he often told one story that ended with the words, "By keeping bad company."

(b) The starling once flew away from his cage and joined some other starlings who were going to rob a farmer's grain field. But they were all caught in a net which the farmer had set for them. When the farmer came to take them out of the net he was astonished to hear one of the birds say, "No man could have done that better." "Who are you?" asked the farmer. "I am the best barber in Germany," replied the bird. "Then how came you here?" asked the farmer. "By keeping bad company," answered the bird. "Do you wish," said the farmer, "that I should let you go?" "If the fates are willing," answered the little starling.

(c) In time of summer, when animals are plagued with thirst, a lion and a wild boar came to a little spring to drink. But a dispute having arisen which of them should drink first, and a desperate fight ensuing, the affair seemed likely to end in murder. After they had fought a considerable time, stopping for a short space in order to take breath, they spied some vultures waiting to devour the one which should first fall. This circumstance induced them to dismiss their enmity, saying, "It is better for us to become friends, than to be a prey to vultures and crows." The fable shows that it is better to put an end to strife and contention than to carry them to the point of involving all the parties in disgrace and ruin.

(d) For full two hours the procession of boats, borne on the current, steered silently down the St. Lawrence. The stars were visible, but the night was moonless and sufficiently dark. The general was in one of the foremost boats, and near him sat a young midshipman, John Robinson, afterwards professor of natural philosophy in the University of Edinburgh. He used to tell in his later life how Wolfe, with a low voice, repeated Gray's "Elegy in a Country Churchyard" to the officers about him. Probably it was to relieve the intense strain of his thoughts. Among the rest was the verse which his own fate was soon to illustrate :

"The paths of glory lead but to the grave."

"Gentlemen," he said, as his recital ended, "I would rather have written those lines than take Quebec." None were there to tell him that the hero is greater than the poet.

Simple Rules for Spelling.

Some words end in SILENT e, such as sale, true, please, and bride.

Rule I.—Silent e is dropped when we add another syllable of which the first letter is a vowel.

Examples.—Sale, sal able; true, tru ism; please, pleas ure; bride, brid al.

- (a) Add to each word in the following list one or more suitable suffixes beginning with a vowel, such as —ing, —able, —ar, —er, —ous, —ible, —ate, —ant, etc.:—

Love, blame, force, reduce, pursue, reverse, ice, conspire, come, brute, sense, blue, nerve, false, stone, gape, rose, use.

- (b) The following words also drop the SILENT e: du ly, tru ly, whol ly, aw ful, argu ment, judg ment, abridg ment, lodg ment, acknowledg ment, nurs ling, wis dom, wia th.

- (c) Words ending in —ie drop the e and change the i into y before —ing.

Examples.—Die, dy ing; lie, ly ing; vie, vy ing; tie, ty ing.

Rule II.—Silent e is retained before a consonant.

Examples.—We write move-ment, sense-less, polite-ly. But under Rule I. we write mov able, sens ible, etc.

- (a) Add to each word in the following list one or more of these suffixes: —ness, —less, —ly, —ful, —some, —ment:—

Perverse, shame, amiable, move, blame, force, love, nerve, use, tire, whole, judge, pale, lone, idle, amaze, due, rue, blue, true, whole, awe.

- (b) Words ending in —ce, ge, —oe, —ye, and —ee also retain the silent e in certain cases, to preserve the proper pronunciation or to distinguish them from other words or to prevent two i's from being written together.

- (c) Distinguish dying and dyeing, singing and singeing, shooring and shoeing, swinging and swingeing.

- (d) Add —able to the words peace, trace, service, notice; charge, change, marriage.

Add —ous to the words courage, outrage, advantage.

Add —ing to the words hoe, shoe; see, agree, flee; eye, dye.

Rule III.—Monosyllables with long vowel sounds do NOT double the last consonant, but otherwise the last consonant IS doubled before a suffix that begins with a vowel.

The application of the rule is easily understood by considering a few examples, and as several thousands of words follow the rule it is very useful to know it.

Examples.—Robe (long), robing ; but rob, robbing.

Sheep (long), sheepish ; but ship, shipping.

Weed (long), weeded ; but wed, wedding.

Soon (long), soonest ; but sun, sunning.

Ride (long), riding ; but rid, ridding.

(a) Add to the following words some ending beginning with a vowel :—Bear, bar ; beat, bet ; break, brag ; hope, hop ; huge, hug ; plane, plan ; rote, rot ; stone, stun ; spite, spit ; out, in ; tune, tan ; stare, star ; wage, wag ; steep, step.

(b) Add —ing to mat, drip, net, spar, quit, bag, and jar.

Add —ed to rag, drug, web, flog, whiz, fag, wed.

Add —y to fin, sun, fun, knot, gum.

Add —er to run, tin, swim, spin, thin, span.

Rule IV.—Words of more than one syllable accented on the last syllable follow the same rule as monosyllables—(Rule III.)—before suffixes that begin with a vowel.

N.B.—This is merely the application of Rule III. to longer words and can be most easily understood by studying a collection of examples.

Examples.—Repeal, repealer, repealable ; but repel, repeller, repellant. Transmute, transmuting, transmutable, transmuted ; but transmit, transmitting, transmittible, transmitter. Compile, compiler, compiling ; but compel, compeller, compelling. Admire, admirer, admiring, admiration ; but admit, admitter, admitting, admittance

- (a) By adding a syllable that begins with a vowel, form other words from these :—Deter, limit, expel, helmet, defer, lemon, occur, benefit, regret, bigot, omit, covet, begin, inhabit, forget, beggar.

NOTE. — Many words ending in single L double the L, even though the stress does not fall on the final consonant. The words bias, worship, kidnap, metal, humbug also double the last consonant without the accent. However, many authorities prefer the simpler spelling and do not double the last consonant; thus we may write travelling or traveling, worshipper or worshiper, biassed or biased. The shorter form is preferable.

Rule V.—Words ending in Y with a CONSONANT before it change the final Y into I before a suffix.

Examples.—Bus y, bus i ness; den y, den i ed; glor y, glor i ous; beaut y, beaut i ful.

- (a) But if two i's, i.e., ii, would result, then we keep the y.

Examples.—Dr y, dr y ing, but dr i ness; bab y, bab y ish; cop y, cop y ist, cop y-ing, but cop i ed and cop i er.

- (b) When s is added the final y becomes ie.

Examples.—Tor y, tor ie s, but tor y ism; bab y, bab ie s, but bab y ism; sp y, sp ie s, but sp y ing and sp i ed; all y, all ie s, but all i ed and all i ance.

- (c) Also proper names usually keep the y.

Examples.—The two Sall y s, the eight Henr y s, the Manl y s, the Dal y s and the Ponsonb y s. There are a few exceptions as “The two Sicil ie s.”

- (d) Several words change y to e before -ous, as beauteous, bounteous, duteous, miscellaneous, piteous, plenteous.

Add some appropriate suffixes, as many as you can, to each of the following words:—
Arbitrary, controversy, defy, luxury, magnify, mercy, tidy, fly, try, vary, rosy, pity, pony, merry, Harry, harry, Sally, sally, Mary, marry, Ruby, ruby, fry, giddy, lady, Lily, lily, jelly, gallery, body, Daisy, daisy, poppy, army, worthy, supply, berry, carry, happy, greedy, necessity, seminary, propensity, magistracy, eccentricity, incendiary, effigy, apology, fury.

Rule VI.—Words ending in Y with a VOWEL before it keep the Y when other letters are added.

Examples.—Anno y s, anno y ing, anno y ed, anno y ance, anno y er; bo y ish, bo y hood, bo y s; buo y ant; buo y s, buo y ancy; bu y s, bu y er, bu y ing; mone y s, mone y ed, mone y less, mone y er.

Exceptions.—The following words are irregular:—
Laid, paid, said, unlaid, unpaid, unsaid, staid, daily, gaily, drily, saith.

- (a) Add some appropriate suffixes, as many as you can, to each of the following words :—Abbey, pray, coy, alley, turnkey, essay, employ, pay, joy, convey, monkey, journey, pulley, galley, envoy, delay, allay, grey, gay, prey.
- (b) Add er, ed, ing, ish, or est, as many as you can, to each of the following words : Decay, defray, obey, survey, stray, portray, busy, easy, sleepy, lazy, happy, bury, weary, flurry, worry, tarry, envy, hurry, speedy,
- (c) Add as many appropriate suffixes as you can—not less than three—to each of the following words :—Fancy, employ, boy, convey, silly, supply, journey, penny, worthy, speedy, buy, dry, envoy, gallery, galley.

Rule VII.—In words that begin with DIS and MIS, notice whether the word or root to which the prefix is added begins with S or not. If not, then there will be only one S, not SS.

Examples.—From arm, disarm ; but from spend, mispend ; from take, mistake ; but from state, misstate. So also with roots ; distinguish, but dissuade ; misnomer, but dissolve.

Missal, missile, mission, missive, misspell, misspend, misshape, misstate.

Disabuse, disappear, disagree, disallow, disobey, discuss, discover, dishonor.

Dissatisfy, dissect, dissimilar, dissyllable, dissipate, dissociate, dissolute, dissonant.

VIII.—The combinations EI and IE are troublesome. The following list contains most of the words in which they occur. No useful rule can be given:—

ei.

obeisance,	counterfeit,	neither,
conceive,	heifer,	reign,
conceit,	heigh-ho,	foreign,
deceive,	height,	sovereign,
deceit,	heinous,	rein,
perceive,	heir,	reindeer,
receive,	heiress,	freight,
receipt,	sheik,	seize,

DICTATION EXERCISE.

Vague rumors are not to be relied on. The dialogue is not well adapted to a promiscuous assembly. You are not left alone to climb the arduous ascent. A tortuous path led to the summit of the mountain. The ship had a tempestuous passage. It would fatigue you to read the whole catalogue. Volcanoes bellow ere they disembogue. You should endeavor to acquire a perspicuous style. The aldermen sat down to a sumptuous banquet. An ingenuous man will despise the tricks of a demagogue. I liked the prologue of the play better than the epilogue. The Jews worship in the synagogue.

PART VI.

The words in the following lists were compiled from lists of "words commonly misspelled," sent from many schools in different parts of Canada. In cases of words having the same sound but different meanings, only one is given here except in a few instances. In spelling such words it is an excellent practice to ask the pupils to write sentences containing both words properly used. (See Part III.) These lists, and the words in the lists of words misspelled by the pupils themselves (Part VII.) should be used frequently for exercises in oral as well as written spelling.

PART VIII.

Literary Selections.

---

The selections in this Part are intended to be memorized and recited, as well as used as dictation lessons.

In making these selections two objects were kept in view ; the inculcation of good moral lessons and literary merit.

Instead of using the recitation hour for the improvement of a few pupils who least require to be trained in the practice of the principles of elocution, thoughtful teachers are uniformly learning the importance of assigning lessons in recitation, as in all other subjects, to all the members of a class. The advantages of such a course are very many. Among them may be named the following : —

1. Every pupil has his mind stored in early years with a collection of the choicest gems of the literature of his language.

2. As all the pupils have prepared the same lesson, each one is able intelligently to take part in the study of the selections in school with a view to their proper recitation.

3. Pupils can recite simultaneously as well as individually.

4. The memories of all the pupils will be cultivated by the practice.

Studying the lessons for dictation, and writing them as dictation lessons, will aid in committing them to memory.

The ability to recite a certain number of appropriate selections should be one of the tests for promotion from one class to another.

Selections suitable for Pupils in the Second Reader.

1.

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread: and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen. — Matt. vi. 9-13.

2.

I. Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

II. Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

III. Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

IV. Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it.

V. Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou shalt not kill.

VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his man-servant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor's. — Exod. xx. 3-17.

3.

Then one of them, which was a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying,

Master, which is the great commandment in the law?

Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

This is the first and great commandment.

And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.

On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets. — Matt. xxii. 35-40.

4

And seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain :
and when he was set, his disciples came unto him :

And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

Blessed are the poor in spirit : for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they that mourn : for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek : for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness : for they shall be filled.

Blessed are the merciful : for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart : for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers : for they shall be called the children of God.

Blessed are they who are persecuted for righteousness'
sake : for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

Rejoice, and be exceeding glad : for great is your reward in heaven ; for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you. — Matt. v. 1-12.

5.

Beautiful faces are they that wear
The light of a pleasant spirit there ;
It matters little if dark or fair.

Beautiful hands are they that do
Deeds that are noble, good, and true ;
Busy with them the long day through.

Beautiful feet are they that go
Swiftly to lighten another's woe,
Through summer's heat or winter's snow;

Beautiful children, if, rich or poor,
They walk the pathways safe and pure,
That lead to the mansion strong and sure.

6.

Do your best, your very best,
And do it every day;
Little boys and little girls,
That is the wisest way.

Whatever work comes to your hand,
At home, abroad, at school,
Do your best with right good will;
It is a golden rule.

7.

If you find your task is hard,
Try, try again;
Time will bring you your reward,
Try, try again;
All that other folks can do,
Why, with patience, should not you?
Only keep this rule in view:
TRY, TRY AGAIN.

8.

Do all the good you can,
In all the ways you can,
To all the people you can,
Just as long as you can.

9.

A word may part the dearest friends,—
One little, unkind word,
Which in some light, unguarded hour
The heart with anger stirred.

A look will sometimes send a pang
Of anguish to the heart :
A tone will often cause the tear
In sorrow's eye to start.

One little act of kindness done,
One little kind word spoken,
Hath power to make a thrill of joy
E'en in a heart that's broken.

10.

Only a drop in the bucket,
But every drop will tell ;
The bucket soon would be empty,
Without a drop in the well.

Only a poor little penny,—
It was all I had to give ;
But as pennies make the dollars,
It may help some cause to live.

God loveth the cheerful giver,
Though the gift be poor and small ;
What does he think of his children
When they never give at all ?

11.

'T is being, and doing,
And having, that make
All the pleasures and pains
Of which beings partake.

To be what God pleases,
To do a man's best,
And to have a good heart,
Is the way to be blest. — Peter Parley.

12.

"I Can't" is a sluggard, too lazy to work;
From duty he shrinks, every task he will shirk;
No bread on his board and no meal in his bag;
His house is a ruin, his coat is a rag.

"I Can" is a worker; he tills the broad fields,
And digs from the earth all the wealth that it yields;
The hum of his spindle begins with the light,
And the fires of his forges are blazing all night.

13.

Hearts, like doors, can ope with ease
To very, very little keys;
And don't forget that they are these:
"I thank you, sir," and, "If you please."

Then let us watch these little things,
And so respect each other;
That not a word, or look, or tone,
May wound a friend or brother.

14.

Dare to be honest, good, and sincere,
Dare to please God, and you never need fear.

Dare to be brave in the cause of the right,
Dare with the enemy ever to fight.

Dare to be loving and patient each day,
Dare speak the truth whatever you say.

Dare to be gentle and orderly too,
Dare shun the evil, whatever you do.
Dare to speak kindly, and ever be true,
Dare to do right, and you'll find your way through

15.

Count that day lost
Whose low descending sun
Views from thy hand
No worthy action done.

16.

Be good, my friend, and let who will be clever;
Do noble things, not dream them all day long,
And so make life, death, and that vast forever,
One grand, sweet song.

17.

I live for those who love me,
For those who know me true,
For the heaven that smiles above me,
And awaits my spirit too;
For the cause that lacks assistance,
For the wrong that needs resistance,
For the future in the distance,
And the good that I can do.

18.

Over and over again,
No matter which way I turn,
I always find in the book of life
Some lesson that I must learn;
I must take my turn at the mill,
I must grind out the golden grain,
I must work at my task with a resolute will
Over and over again.

19.

Dare to do right ! dare to be true !
The failings of others can never save you ;
Stand by your conscience, your honor, your faith,
Stand like a hero, and battle till death.

20.

Do what conscience says is right ;
Do what reason says is best ;
Do with all your mind and might ;
Do your duty, and be blest.

21.

Speak gently, kindly, to the poor ;
Let no harsh term be heard ;
They have enough they must endure,
Without an unkind word. — David Bates.

22.

I count this thing to be grandly true,
That a noble deed is a step toward God,
Lifting the soul from the common sod
To a purer air and a broader view. — J. G. Holland.

23.

A little word in kindness spoken,
A motion, or a tear,
Has often healed the heart that's broken,
And made a friend sincere.

A word — a look — has crushed to earth
Full many a budding flower,
Which, had a smile but owned its birth,
Would bless life's darkest hour.

Then deem it not an idle thing
A pleasant word to speak ;
The face you wear, the thoughts you bring,
A heart may heal or break. — Colesworthy.

24.

Within this ample volume lies
The mystery of mysteries ;
Happiest they of human race
To whom their God has given grace
To read, to fear, to hope, to pray,
To lift the latch, to force the way ;
And better had they ne'er been born,
That read to doubt, or read to scorn.

Walter Scott.

25.

Thou truest friend man ever knew,
Thy constancy I've tried ;
When all were false, I found thee true,
My counsellor and guide.
The mines of earth no treasures give
That could this volume buy ;
In teaching me the way to live,
It taught me how to die. — George P. Morris.

26.

“No God ! no God !” The simplest flower
That on the wild is found
Shrinks as it drinks its cup of dew,
And trembles at the sound.
“No God !” astonished Echo cries
From out her cavern hoar ;
And every wandering bird that flies
Reproves the atheist lore.

27.

If men were wise in little things,
Affecting less in all their dealings, —
If hearts had fewer rusted strings
To isolate their kindly feelings, —
If men, when Wrong beats down the Right,
Would strike together and restore it, —
If Right made Might
In every fight, —

The world would be the better for it. — W. H. Cobb.

28.

A mother's love, how sweet the name !
What is a mother's love ?
A noble, pure, and tender flame,
Enkindled from above,
To bless a heart of earthly mould, —
The warmest love that can grow cold, —
This is a mother's love. — Montgomery.

29.

He prayeth well who loveth well
Both man and bird and beast ;
He prayeth best who loveth best
All things, both great and small ;
For the dear God, who loveth us,
He made and loveth all. — Coleridge.

30.

Rest not ! Life is sweeping by ;
Go and dare before you die.
Something mighty and sublime
Leave behind to conquer time ;
Glorious 't is to live for aye,
When these forms have passed away. — Goethe.

31.

For God has marked each sorrowing day,
And numbered every secret tear,
And heaven's long years of bliss shall pay
For all his children suffer here. — W. C. Bryant.

32.

Beware the bowl ! though rich and bright
Its rubies flash upon the sight,
An adder coils its depths beneath,
Whose lure is woe, whose sting is death.
Alfred B. Street.

Selections for Classes in the Third Book.

1.

God hath a presence, and that you may see
In the fold of the flower, the leaf of the tree ;
In the sun of the noonday, the star of the night ;
In the storm-cloud of darkness, the rainbow of light ;
In the waves of the ocean, the furrows of land ;
In the mountain of granite, the atom of sand ;
Turn where you may, from the sky to the sod,
Where can ye gaze that ye see not a God ? — Eliza Cook

2.

The quality of mercy is not strained,
It droppeth as the gentle rain from heaven
Upon the place beneath : it is twice blest ;
It blesseth him that gives and him that takes :
'Tis mightiest in the mightiest : it becomes
The throned monarch better than his crown :
It is an attribute to God himself.

And earthly power doth then show likest God's
When mercy seasons justice. Consider this,
That, in the course of justice, none of us
Should see salvation : we do pray for mercy ;
And that same prayer doth teach us all to render
The deeds of mercy. — Shakespeare.

3.

We live in deeds, not years, — in thoughts, not breaths, —
In feelings, not in figures on a dial ; —
We should count time by heart-throbs. He most lives
Who thinks most, — feels the noblest, — acts the best.

Bailey.

4.

God moves in a mysterious way,
His wonders to perform ;
He plants his footsteps in the sea,
And rides upon the storm.

Deep in unfathomable mines
Of never-failing skill,
He treasures up his bright designs,
And works his sovereign will.

Ye fearful saints, fresh courage take ;
The clouds ye so much dread
Are big with mercy, and shall break
In blessings on your head. — Cowper.

5.

Judge not the Lord by feeble sense,
But trust him for his grace ;
Behind a frowning Providence
He hides a smiling face.

His purposes will ripen fast,
Unfolding every hour;
The bud may have a bitter taste,
But sweet will be the flower.

Blind unbelief is sure to err,
And scan his work in vain;
God is his own interpreter,
And he will make it plain. — Cowper.

6.

Press on ! surmount the rocky steeps;
Climb boldly o'er the torrent's arch;
He fails alone who feebly creeps,
He wins who dares the hero's march.
Be thou a hero ! let thy might
Tramp on eternal snows its way ;
And through the ebon walls of night
Hew down a passage unto day.

7.

The heights by great men reached and kept
Were not attained by sudden flight,
But they, while their companions slept,
Were toiling upward in the night. — Longfellow.

8.

Nothing is greater sacrilege than to prostitute the great name of God to the petulance of an idle tongue. — Jeremy Taylor.

9.

The Devil tempts men through their ambition, their cupidity, or their appetite, until he comes to the profane swearer, whom he catches without any reward. — Horace Mann.

10.

The foolish and wicked practice of profane cursing and swearing is a vice so mean and low, that every person of sense and character detests and despises it. — George Washington.

11.

Who is thy neighbor? He whom thou
Hast power to aid or bless ;
Whose aching head or burning brow
Thy soothing hand may press.

Thy neighbor is the fainting poor,
Whose eye with want is dim ;
O, enter then his humble door
With aid and peace for him.

Thy neighbor? Pass no mourner by ;
Perhaps thou canst redeem
A breaking heart from misery ; —
Go, share thy lot with him.

12.

A cheerful temper, joined with innocence, will make beauty attractive, knowledge delightful, and wit good-natured. It will lighten sickness, poverty, and affliction, convert ignorance into an amiable simplicity, and render deformity itself agreeable. — Addison.

13.

God is glorified, not by our groans, but our thanksgivings ; and all good thought and good action claim a natural alliance with good cheer. — E. P. Whipple.

14.

To be happy, the passions must be cheerful and gay, not gloomy and melancholy. A propensity to hope and joy is real riches ; one to fear and sorrow, real poverty. — Hume.

15.

Lying's a certain mark of cowardice ;
And when the tongue forgets its honesty,
The heart and hand may drop their functions, too,
And nothing worthy be resolved or done.

Thomas Southern.

16.

Work ! and pure slumbers shall wait on thy pillow ;
Work ! thou shalt ride over care's coming billow.
Lie not down wearied 'neath woe's weeping willow,
Work with a stout heart and resolute will !
Work for some good, be it ever so slowly ;
Work for some hope, be it ever so lowly ;
Work ! for all labor is noble and holy ! — Mrs. Osgood.

17.

We count the Scriptures of God to be the most sublime philosophy. I find more marks of authenticity in the Bible than in any profane history whatever. — Isaac Newton.

18.

The Bible contains more true sublimity, more exquisite beauty, more pure morality, more important history, and finer strains of poetry and eloquence, than can be collected from all other books, in whatever age or language they have been written. — Sir William Jones.

19.

Life should be full of earnest work,
Our hearts undashed by fortune's frown ;
Let perseverance conquer fate,
And merit seize the victor's crown.
The battle is not to the strong,
The race not always to the fleet ;
And he who seeks to pluck the stars
Will lose the jewels at his feet. — P. Cary.

20.

Sweet clime of my kindred, blest land of my birth !
The fairest, the dearest, the brightest on earth !
Where'er I may roam, howe'er blest I may be,
My spirit instinctively turns unto thee !

21.

In the world's broad field of battle,
In the bivouac of Life,
Be not like dumb, driven cattle !
Be a hero in the strife !
Trust no Future, howe'er pleasant !
Let the dead Past bury its dead !
Act,—act in the living Present !
Heart within, and God o'erhead.
Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time ;—
Footprints that perhaps another,
Sailing o'er life's solemn main,
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother,
Seeing, shall take heart again.
Let us, then, be up and doing,
With a heart for any fate ;
Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait.—Longfellow.

22.

At evening to myself I say,
Where hast thou been and gleaned to-day,—
Thy labors how bestowed ?
What hast thou rightly said or done ?
What grace attained, and knowledge won,
In following after God ?—Charles Wesley.

23.

Words of kindness we have spoken
May, when we have passed away,
Heal, perhaps, a spirit broken,
Guide a brother led astray. — J. Hagen.

Speak gently ! 't is a little thing,
Dropped in the heart's deep well ;
The good, the joy, that it may bring,
Eternity shall tell. — D. Bates.

24.

Though waves and storms go o'er my head,
Though strength, and health, and friends be gone;
Though joys be withered all and dead,
And every comfort be withdrawn :
On this my steadfast soul relies, —
Father, thy mercy never dies. — Wesley.

25.

Thou art, O God, the life and light
Of all this wondrous world we see ;
Its glow by day, its smile by night,
Are but reflections caught from thee.
Where'er we turn, thy glories shine,
And all things fair and bright are thine.

Thomas Moore.

26.

Hours are golden links, God's token,
Reaching heaven ; but one by one
Take them, lest the chain be broken
Ere thy pilgrimage be done.

Adelaide A. Procter

27.

O God ! that men should put an enemy in their mouths to steal away their brains ! — Shakespeare.

28.

The habit of using ardent spirits by men in office has occasioned more injury to the public and more trouble to me than all other causes. And were I to commence my administration again, the first question I would ask respecting a candidate for office would be, "Does he use ardent spirits?"

Thomas Jefferson.

29.

Greatness of any kind has no greater foe than a habit of drinking. — Walter Scott.

30.

These are the great of earth, —
Great not by kingly birth,
Great in their well-proved worth,
Firm hearts and true. — J. Pierpont.

31.

Temperance and labor are the two best physicians of man; labor sharpens the appetite, and temperance prevents him from indulging to excess. — Rousseau.

32.

Work for the good that is nighest;
Dream not of greatness afar;
That glory is ever the highest
Which shines upon men as they are.
Work, though the world would defeat you;
Heed not its slander and scorn;
Nor weary till angels shall greet you
With smiles through the gates of the morn.

W. M. Punshon.

33.

True worth is in being, not seeming, —
In doing each day that goes by
Some little good, not in dreaming
Of great things to do by and by ;
For, whatever men say in their blindness,
And spite of the fancies of youth,
There is nothing so kingly as kindness,
And nothing so royal as truth.

Alice Cary.

34.

The rose, which in the sun's bright rays
Might soon have drooped and perished,
With grateful scent the shower repays
By which its life is cherished :
And thus have e'en the young in years
Found flowers within that flourish,
And yield a fragrance fed by tears,
That sunshine could not nourish.

Bernard Barton.

35.

One by one the sands are flowing,
One by one the moments fall ;
Some are coming, some are going ;
Do not strive to grasp them all.

One by one thy duties wait thee,
Let thy whole strength go to each :
Let no future dreams elate thee, —
Learn thou first what these can teach.

Adelaide A. Procter.

Selections for Classes in Fourth and Fifth Books.

1.

We rise by things that are 'neath our feet ;
By what we have mastered of good and gain ;
By the pride deposed, and the passion slain,
And the vanquished ills that we hourly meet.

J. G. Holland.

2.

It may not be our lot to wield
The sickle in the ripened field,
Nor ours to hear on summer eves
The reaper's song among the sheaves,
Yet where our duty's task is wrought
In unison with God's great thought,
The near and future blend in one,
And whatsoe'er is willed is done — Whittier.

3.

There 's a wideness in God's mercy
Like the wideness of the sea ;
There 's a kindness in his justice,
Which is more than liberty.
For the love of God is broader
Than the measure of man's mind ;
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind. — F. W. Faber.

4.

The fairest action of our human life
Is scorning to revenge an injury ;
For who forgives, without a further strife,
His adversary's heart to him doth tie.
And 't is a firmer conquest, truly said,
To win the heart, than overthrow the head.

Elizabeth Carew.

5.

The day is drawing to its close,
And what good deeds, since first it rose,
Have I presented, Lord, to thee ?
What wrongs repressed, what rights maintained,
What struggles passed, what victories gained,
What good attempted and attained,
As offerings of my ministry? — Longfellow.

6.

Be wise to-day ; 't is madness to defer ;
Next day the fatal precedent will plead ;
Thus on, till wisdom is pushed out of life.
Procrastination is the thief of time ;
Year after year it steals, till all are fled,
And to the mercies of a moment leaves
The vast concerns of an eternal scene. — Young

7.

Whene'er a noble deed is wrought,
Whene'er is spoken a noble thought,
Our hearts in glad surprise
To higher levels rise.
The tidal wave of deeper souls
Into our inmost being rolls,
And lifts us unawares
Out of all meaner cares. — Longfellow.

8.

Truth, crushed to earth, shall rise again ;
The eternal years of God are hers :
But Error, wounded, writhes with pain,
And dies among his worshippers. — Bryant.

9.

Speak gently to the erring : O, do not thou forget,
However darkly stained by sin, he is thy brother yet !
Heir of the selfsame heritage, child of the selfsame God,
He hath but stumbled in the path thou hast in weakness trod.

F. C. Lee.

10.

Rouse to some work of high and holy love,
And thou an angel's happiness shalt know, —
Shalt bless the earth while in the world above :
The good begun by thee shall onward flow
In many a branching stream, and wider grow ;
The seed, that in those few and fleeting hours
Thy hands unsparing and unwearied sow,
Shall deck thy grave with amaranthine flowers,
And yield thee fruits divine in heaven's immortal bowers.

C. Wilcox.

11.

The lesson which the many-colored skies,
The flowers, and leaves, and painted butterflies,
The deer's branched antlers, the gay bird that flings
The tropic sunshine from its golden wings,
The brightness of the human countenance,
Its play of smile, the magic of a glance,
For evermore repeat,
In varied tones and sweet,
That beauty, in and of itself, is good. — Whittier.

12.

I would not waste my spring of youth
In idle dalliance ; I would plant rich seeds
To blossom in my manhood, and bear fruit
When I am old.

J. A. Hillhouse.

13.

Let us be patient ! These severe afflictions
Not from the ground arise,
But oftentimes celestial benedictions
Assume this dark disguise.

We see but dimly through the mists and vapors ;
Amid these earthly damps,
What seem to us but sad, funereal tapers
May be heaven's distant lamps — Longfellow

14.

No man is born into the world whose work
Is not born with him ; there is always work,
And tools to work withal, for those who will ;
And blessed are the horny hands of toil.

J. R. Lowell.

15

There's nothing bright, above, below,
From flowers that bloom to stars that glow,
But in its light my soul can see
Some feature of thy Deity !

There's nothing dark, below, above,
But in its gloom I trace thy love ;
And meekly wait that moment, when
Thy touch shall turn all bright again.

Thomas Moore.

16

The Lord is my shepherd ; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures : he leadeth me beside the still waters

He restoreth my soul : he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever. — Psalm xxiii.

17.

Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven.

Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth:

That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly.

And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.

But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

Be not ye therefore like unto them : for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him. — Matt. vi. 1-8.

18.

Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love ; in honor preferring one another ;

Not slothful in business ; fervent in spirit ; serving the Lord ;

Rejoicing in hope ; patient in tribulation ; continuing instant in prayer ;

Distributing to the necessity of saints ; given to hospitality.

Bless them which persecute you : bless, and curse not.

Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.

Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath : for it is written, Vengeance is mine ; I will repay, saith the Lord.

Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him ; if he thirst, give him drink : for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good. Rom. xii. 10-21.

AFFIXES (sometimes called postfixes or suffixes).

Affixes are letters or syllables placed at the end of a word to modify its meaning,

The affixes usually determine the part of speech to which the words they form belong, and therefore may be arranged according to the classes of words formed by their aid.

Some terminations have several meanings, and are used in forming different parts of speech—as, ate, in captive and potentate; ish, in burnish and blackish; en, in weaken and wooden.
